WHAT TO BRING TO CAMP THOMPSON

A duffel bag or suitcase is the most convenient form of luggage for camp. Each camper should bring a sleeping bag and pillow. Sheets and blankets are acceptable, but can't be used when the cabin takes its overnight back-packing or canoe trip. Be careful not to over-pack. Remember, camp is an excellent place to wear out old clothes. We strongly suggest putting your child's name on all items.

Directions to Camp Thompson – 800 Pine Grove Rd, Gardners, PA 17324

From Harrisburg: Take I-81 South. Take exit 47A South Hanover Street. Follow Route 34 South, towards Mount Holly Springs. From this point, follow the directions leading from Carlisle.

From Carlisle: Take Route 34 South through Mount Holly Springs. At the Route 34/94 split, veer right and stay on Route 34. Turn right onto Green Mountain Road and follow to the end. Turn right onto Pine Grove Road. Just past Laurel Lake boat rental, turn left into Camp Thompson. The lane is marked with a large sign. If you reach Fuller Lake, you have gone too far. Bear right at the second road, also marked with a Camp Thompson sign.

From Chambersburg: Take I-81 North. Take exit 37 Newville. Take Route 233 South toward Pine Grove Furnace. After going over the mountain, turn left at the first stop sign (directly in front of the park offices) onto Pine Grove Road. Approximately 2.5 miles past Fuller Lake turn right into Camp Thompson, right before Laurel Lake boat rental.
